

Explanations:

Italic text: Values that are acquired from instruments onboard.

Bold text: Elements that have unknown parameters that need to be calibrated.

Large text: Output values

Red text: Values that need to be acquired from some external source of information.

